Our New Pastor :
Boyd F. Savage Jr.
gbsavage@yahoo.com
 870-853-6370

Wife: Gina, Children: Alex and Sarah

I love anything outdoors! I enjoy spending time with kids and getting involved with their activities. I really enjoy going to school activities! I have a passion for sharing and teaching God's Word! I truly love being with God's people. I have worked with the Salvation Army for a number of years, which facilitates activity within the community. I'm a member of the AR Forestry Association

Three things I value about pastoral ministry in the United Methodist Church:

1. John Wesley's view and approach to theology was spot on. He had a good understanding of how to practice and apply what God revealed to him. Wesley's Trinitarian Theology was, and is, the most fundamentally sound foundation on which to build a movement that will set people free.
2. The UMC is the most loving church I have ever attended. I learned to walk in the Methodist Church. I mean this both metaphorically and literally. Our churches are filled with good people! We have so much potential! There is certainly a place in our world for other denominations, but no one loves like we do!
3. I respect the leadership of the UMC and the accountability of its pastors. I take pride in the fact that Jesus Christ is the head of our body. We preach the truth of God's Word in love within an environment of grace.

I am excited about working with the church to create vitality and to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

God teaches each of us in a variety of ways. I have learned so much over the years in my journey of faith. I, like everyone else, have made mistakes and learned from them, I truly look forward to sharing what I know and taking advantage of what others know in order to move the church forward. The Holy Spirit gives to each of God's children gifts and graces. Together, as we share each individual's gifts and graces within the confines of ministry, I feel confident we will see great returns.
